Dog Vaccinations

*DAPP Vaccination (Distemper Vaccine)-This vaccine protects against Canine Distemper Virus, Canine Adenovirus types 1 & 2, Canine Parainfluenza Virus, & Canine Parvovirus. Starting at 8 weeks of age, the vaccine requires 3 boosters 3 weeks apart. The 3rd booster is good for 1 year. Then we give the DAPP 3 year Vaccination every 3 years after that.

*Rabies Vaccination-Starting at 16 weeks of age, a 1 year Rabies Vaccination is given. Then after that a 3 year vaccination is given and boosted every 3 years after that. By law, Rabies Vaccination must stay current and the pet must be registered with the county license dept.

*Oral Bordetella Vaccination (Kennel Cough Vaccine)-Starting at 8 weeks of age, this vaccine requires no Boosters and is given yearly to protect against Canine Kennel Cough. In rare occasions, a subcutaneous Bordetella vaccination may be recommended instead of the Oral and would require 1 booster 3 weeks after the initial injection.

*Lyme Disease Vaccination-Lyme Disease is very prevalent in our area and commonly spread through the bite of infected ticks. Starting after 16 weeks of age, this vaccine requires 1 Booster 3 weeks after the initial vaccination. The Booster is good for 1 year and will be boosted yearly after that.

*Leptospirosis Vaccination-This vaccine protects against Leptospirosis, which is caused by a bacteria that spreads through soil, water, and the urine of infected animals. If it is not caught early, it can be deadly. Lepto is Zoonotic, which means it can be spread from animals to people. Starting after 16 weeks of age, the vaccine requires 1 Booster 3 weeks after the initial is given. The booster is good for 1 year and will need to be updated yearly after that.

Canine Influenza Bivalent Vaccination-The Bivalent Vaccine is helping to aid in the control of disease associated with Canine Influenza Virus H3N2 and H3N8 infections. Starting after 16 weeks of age, this vaccine requires 1 Booster 3 weeks after the initial is given and is good for 1 year and then updated yearly after that.
